

Part 1:

1. Engelbert Humperdink's career reached a low in the early 1950's. What movie rejuvenated it?
  - a. Guys and Dolls
  - b. From Here to Eternity
  - c. The Manchurian Candidate
  - d. The Man with the Golden Arm
2. A ballplayer was shot en route to a tryout. Years later he became a legend. Who wrote the story of his career in "The Natural"?
  - a. Bernard Malamud
  - b. Ring Lardner
  - c. Robert Redford
  - d. Phillip Roth
3. A ballplayer sells his life to the devil but ultimately wins the game with a homerun. Who composed this show?
  - a. John Kander
  - b. Richard Adler
  - c. Stephen Sondheim
  - d. Stephen Schwartz
4. After having to relinquish her title of Miss America, she regained her reign and became very successful as a singer and actress.
  - a. Mariah Carey
  - b. Janet Jackson
  - c. Vanessa Williams
  - d. Whitney Houston
5. This actor overcame substance abuse. Charlie Chaplin's "Smile" can be related to him.
  - a. Ben Affleck
  - b. Johnny Depp
  - c. Matthew Perry
  - d. Robert Downey Jr
6. Who composed seven symphonies while he was deaf?
  - a. Ludwig von Beethoven
  - b. Johann Sebastian Bach
  - c. Johannes Brahms
  - d. George Frederick Handel
7. He was blind due to childhood glaucoma but he still "Hit the Road, Jack." Who is he?
  - a. Stevie Wonder
  - b. Ray Charles
  - c. Jose Feliciano
  - d. Ronnie Milsap
8. Blind shortly after his birth, he received the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 2014. Who is this performer?
  - a. Stevie Wonder

- b. Aaron Neville
  - c. Andrea Bocelli
  - d. Roy Orbison
9. In a stand for dignity, this violinist canceled a concert because the state limited protections of LGBTQ people.
- a. Fritz Kreisler
  - b. Jascha Heifitz
  - c. Sarah Chang
  - d. Itzhak Perlman
10. This actress portrayed a famous teacher who was blind in "The Miracle Worker." Who is this actress?
- a. Patty Duke
  - b. Anne Bancroft
  - c. Lauren Bacall
  - d. Elizabeth Taylor

Part 2:

1. He overcame his challenge and became the 32nd president. He even landed a part in "Annie." What was his dog's name?
- a. Fala
  - b. Falco
  - c. Fido
  - d. Figaro
2. In spite of being terminally ill, which male actor gave a stellar performance in "Ma Rainey's Black Bottom?"
- a. Danny Tidwell
  - b. Chadwick Bozeman
  - c. Bobby Brown Jr
  - d. Michael B Jordan
3. This fictional character wore leg braces as a child but eventually won a football scholarship. Who played his girlfriend?
- a. Tea Leoni
  - b. Robin Wright
  - c. Helena Bonham Carter
  - d. Selma Hayek
4. The "Castaway" spent three years on a deserted island and figured out a way to come home. What was this character's name?
- a. Jerry Lovett
  - b. Dick Peterson
  - c. Steve Larson
  - d. Chuck Noland
5. Blind at 14, which author became very famous writing stories about her childhood?

- a. Louisa May Alcott
  - b. Laura Ingalls Wilder
  - c. Toni Morrison
  - d. J K Rowling
6. Who suffered a ruptured suspensory ligament in the front left leg in 1939 but later won the Triple Crown?
- a. Seattle Slew
  - b. Secretariat
  - c. Man O' War
  - d. Seabiscuit
7. In spite of low self-esteem, she is one of the best-selling music artists of all time. You might hear her in a duet with Luther Vandross. Who is she?
- a. Beyoncé
  - b. Jennifer Lopez
  - c. Mariah Carey
  - d. Toni Braxton
8. What SF Giant pitcher lost his left arm due to cancer but went on to become a successful motivational speaker?
- a. Dave Dravecky
  - b. Gaylord Perry
  - c. Logan Webb
  - d. Kelly Downs
9. There's a movie that ends with Liberace's "I'll be Seeing you." The author who spawned this movie said, "you will never know what you are really capable of unless you fail sometime."
- a. J. K. Rowling
  - b. Agatha Christie
  - c. Stephen King
  - d. John Le Carré
10. Fired from her first TV news anchor job for being too emotional, she later won multiple Emmys for her daytime TV show.
- a. Hoda Kotb
  - b. Oprah Winfrey
  - c. Whoopi Goldberg
  - d. Tamron Hall